REFORMATION OF WILLIAM WIRT.

A True Incident in His History.

The distinguished William Wirt, within six or eight months after his first marriage, became addicted to intemperance, the effect of which operated strongly on the mind and health of his wife, and in a few months more she was numbered with the dead.—Her death led him to leave the country where he resided, and he moved to Richmond, where he soon rose to distinction.—But his habits hung about him and occasionally he was found with jolly and frolicsome spirits and bacchanalian revelry.—His true friends expostulated with him to convince him of the injury he was doing himself. But he persisted. His practice began to fall off and many looked on him as on the sure road to ruin. He was advised to get married. With a view of correcting his habits. This he consented to do if the right person offered. He accordingly paid his addresses to Miss Gamble. After some month's attention he asked her hand in marriage, she replied—Mr. Wirt, I have been well aware of your attentions for some time back, and should have given you to understand that your visits and attentions were not acceptable, had I not reciprocated the affectiom which you evinced for me. But I cannot yield my assent until you make a pledge never to taste, touch or handle any intoxicating drinks. This reply to Wirt was as unexpected as it was novel.—His reply was that he considered the proposition as a bar to all further consideration on the subject, and he left her. Her course towards him was the same as ever—his resentment and neglect. In the course of a few weeks he went again and solicited her hand. But her reply was, her mind was made up. He became indignant, and regarded the terms she proposed as insulting to his honor; and vowed it should be the last meeting they should ever have. He took to drinking worse and worse, and seemed to run headlong to ruin.

One day, while lying in the outskirts of the city, near a little grocery, or grog-shop dead drunk, a young lady, whom it is not necessary to name, was passing that way to her home, not far off, and beheld him with his face upturned to the rays of the scorching sun. She took her handkerchief with her own name marked upon it, and placed it over his face. After he had remained in that way some hours, he awakened, and his thirst being so great, he went into the grog-shop to get a drink, when he discovered the handkerchief, at which he looked, and the name was on it. After pausing a few minutes, he exclaimed—'Great God! who left this with me! Who placed this on my face?' No one knew. He dropped the glass exclaiming—"enough! enough!" He retired instantly from the store forgetting his thirst, but not his debauch, the handkerchief, or the lady, vowing, if God gave him strength, never to touch, taste or handle intoxicating drinks.

To meet Miss G., was the hardest effort of his life. If he met her in her carriage, or on foot, he popped round the nearest corner. She at last addressed him a note under her own hand inviting him to her house, which he finally gathered courage to accept. He told her if she still bore affection for him, he would agree to her own terms. Her reply was: "My conditions are now what they ever have been." "Then," said Wirt, "I accept them."

They were soon married, and from that day he kept his word, and his affairs brightened, while honors and glory gathered thick upon his brow. His name has been enrolled high in the temple of fame, while his deeds, his patriotism and renown live after him with imperishable lustre. How many noble minds might the young ladies save, if they would follow the example of Miss G., the friend of humanity, of her country, and the relation of Lafayette.

RADICAL CHANGE IN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES.—The Times thus announces that a despotism has replaced the Constitution and the Government of the United States:

"We do not wonder that they deem the terms (of reconstruction) required harsh and illiberal. We agree in so regarding them unjust and inexpedient—at war with the Constitution and hostile to the dictates of a wise and considerate statesmanship. But how does this help their case? Suppose the terms imposed are unconstitutional, how does the South expect to avert their imposition? Has it not discovered that, wherever the right may be, the power of this Government rests with Congress? That body over-rules alike the vetoes of the President and the decisions of the Supreme Court; and in neither case is there any authority that can overrule its authority or avert its action."

What is this but an acknowledgement that the people have surrendered their rights and their freedom to politicians without a struggle, and that hereafter they are at the mercy of any political party that secures a majority in Congress? All the limitations to the exercise of power contained in the Constitution, the opposition of the President and the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States, having been set aside and overriden by Congress. Thus has our vaunted form of Government been revolutionised by war.—N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE.

Views of Mark Twain.

Editors Missouri Democrat:

I have read the long list of lady petitioners in favor of female suffrage, and as a husband and father I want to protest against the whole business. It will never do to allow women to vote. It will never do to allow them to hold office. You know, and I know, that if they were granted these privileges there would be no more peace on earth. They would swamp the country with debt. They like to hold office too well. They like to be Mrs President Smith of the Dorcas Society, or Mrs. Secretary Jones of the Hindoo Aid Association, or Mrs. Treasurer of something or other. They are fond of the distinction of the thing, you know; they revel in the sweet jingle of the title. They are always setting up sanctified confederations of all kinds, and then running for President of them. They are even so fond of office that they are willing to serve without pay. But you allow them to vote and go to the Legislature once, and then see how it will be. They will go to work and start a thousand more societies, and cram them full of salaried offices. You will see a state of things then that will stir your feelings to the bottom of your pockets. The first fee bill would exasperate you some. Instead of the usual schedule for judges, State printer, Supreme Court clerks, &c., the list would read something like this:

OFFICES AND SALARIES.
President Dorcas Society,	$1,000
Subordinate officers of same, each,	2,000
Pres't Ladies Union prayer meeting,	3,000
Pres't Pawnee Educational Society,	4,000
Pres't of Ladies' society for dissemination of Belles Letters among the Shoshones,	5,000
State Crinoline Directress,	10,000
State Sup't of Waterfalls,	10,000
State Hair Oil Inspectress,	10,000
State Milliner,	50,000

You know what a state of anarchy and social chaos that fee bill would create. Every woman in the Commonwealth of Missouri would let go every thing and run for State Milliner. And instead of ventilating each other's political antecedents, as men do, they would go straight after each other's private moral character. (I know them—they are all like my wife.) Before the canvass was three days old it would be an established proposition that every woman in the State was "no better than she ought to be." Only think how it would lacerate me to have an opposition candidate say that about my wife. That is the idea, you know—having other people say these hard things. Now, I know that my wife isn't any better than she ought to be, poor devil—in fact, in matters of orthodox doctrine, she is particularly shaky—but still I would not like these things aired in a political contest. I don't really suppose that that woman will stand any more show hereafter than—however, she may improve—she may even become a beacon light for the saving of others—but if she does, she will burn rather dim, and she will flicker a good deal, too. But, as I was saying, a female political canvass would be an outrageous thing.

Think of the torch-light procession that would distress our eyes. Think of the curious legends on the transparencies:

"Robbins forever! Vote for Sallie Robbins, the only virtuous candidate in the field!"

And this:

"Chastity, modesty, patriotism! Let the great people stand by Maria Sanders, the champion of morality and progress, and the only candidate with a stainless reputation!"

And this:

In that day a man shall say to his servant, "What is the matter with the baby?" and the servants shall reply, "It has been sick for hours." "And where is its mother?" "She is out electioneering for Sallie Robbins." And such conversations as these shall transpire between ladies and servants applying for situations: "Can you cook?" "Yes." "Wash?" "Yes." "Do general housework?" "Yes." "All right; who is your choice for State milliner?" "Judy McGinnis." "Well, you can tramp." And women shall talk politics instead of discussing the fashions; and they shall neglect the duties of the household to go out and take a drink with candidates; and men shall nurse the baby while their wives travel to the polls to vote. And also in that day the man who hath beautiful whiskers shall beat the homely man of wisdom for Governor, and the youth who waltzes with exquisite grace shall be Chief of Police, in preference to the man of practiced sagacity and determined energy. * * * *

Every man, I take it, has a selfish end in view when he pours out eloquence in behalf of the public good in the newspapers, and such is the case with me. I do not want the privileges of woman extended, because my wife already holds office in nineteen different infernal female associations, and I have to do all her clerking. If you give the women full sweep with the men in political affairs, she will proceed to run for every confounded office under the new dispensation. That will finish me. It is bound to finish me. She would not have time to do anything at all then, and the one solitary thing I have shirked up to the present time would fall on me and my family would go to destruction; for I am not qalified for a wet nurse.

MARK TWAIN.

THE London correspondent of the Boston Journal, in noticing the uprising of the Fenians in Ireland, observes:

"What seems strange to an American is the fact that of the men found on British soil not one was arrested, but all were allowed to depart in peace and go their several ways, though the fact that they were Fenians was well known. This fact brings out one peculiar element in the English character, and that is the sacredness of personal liberty. Suspicion will not answer. A man must do some wrong to be arrested. A well-known thief or pickpocket going into a crowded assembly may not be hindered in his going in, though his intentions may be well known. The Fenians at Chester simply gathered in a crowd, and loitered round the city and attempted no violence. Though Parliament was moved, London all in a ferment, the Queens Guards, that seldom leave London, posted by express to the scene of invasion, though the train bands were called out, men enrolled as private constables, and Liverpool sent her forces to the place of attack, yet none were arrested; the invaders looked on, saw the Guards disembark, heard the alarm at the Castle, and then quietly strolled away into the country and were seen no more. After all this uproar a British subject could not be arrested unless he had committed some wrong act. Even in Ireland, Fenians are allowed to depart if they will, and their passage would be gladly paid if they would go to America.

This does "seem strange to an American;" but is it not a sad commentary upon republicanism that such is the case? How many men have been arrested here on suspicion within the past six years is known only to Secretary STANTON and his subordinates; and to such an extent has this disregard for personal liberty permeated national, state, and local governments, that, but a short time ago, the police of this city were ordered to arrest any person, on the public conveyances, whom they had reason to believe was a thief. Yet this is "the land of the free and the home of the brave," while Great Britain is a monarchy.—World.

THE NEW RADICAL ALLIES.—It is not enough for our Radical rulers that hundreds of thousands of ignorant negroes in the South are made voters; but in order that these miserable creatures may more surely become mere instruments in the hands of Northern adventurers, the mode of voting commonly used in the South is to be changed. If one of these new voters was permitted to name to the election officers his favorite candidates, he would at least know for whom he had voted; but Congress don't allow any such freedom—the men who are fed, clothed, and guided by the Freedman's Bureau are to be provided with printed ballots which not one of them can read, and under the eye of the Government officers there are to be deposited. What a wicked farce is all this first clothe with the very highest trust a whole race of slaves, too ignorant to make a bargain of hiring, and unable to take care of their earnings unless assisted by public officials—and then enact that they shall use the printed ballot, which their guardians can read, but which they cannot. Can any fair minded citizen doubt that the whole arrangement is for the mere purpose of strengthening the Radical party and keeping in office the knaves who are waisting the public money on useless extravagance, while the land is full of tax-gatherers.

YANKEE DOODLE AN OLD SPANISH TUNE.—There have been a great many asserted origins of Yankee Doodle. The following is the last, related in a letter from Spain by Wm. C. Byrant, the poet:

"Some time since, when Mr. Perry, Secretary of the American Legation at Madrid, was in one of the Basque provinces, he heard a band playing their old national airs. The Basque have preserved whatever is peculiar to them, their language, their customs, and many of their political rights, from the earliest period in which they are known to history; their national music is claimed to be of the same antiquity. After the band had played several airs it struck up Yankee Doodle, the very tune, in every note, which is so familiar to American ears. Mr. Perry immediately claimed it as our national air. 'It is one of our old tunes,' said a gentleman to whom he spoke, 'and I can convince you of the fact.' For hundreds of years it has been a popular air among us. The gentleman afterward made good his assertion by showing Mr. Perry a manuscript of great antiquity which contained the identical musical notes of 'Yankee Doodle.'"

During the recent session of the equal rights convention, a strong minded female entered a street railroad car. And old gent rose to give her a seat, but asked, "Be you one of those women's righters?"

"I be."

"You believe a woman should have all the rights of a man?"

"Yes I do."

"Then stand up and enjoy them like a man;" and stand up she did.

A NEW LICENSE LAW.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT to an act further to regulate the granting of licenses to hotels and eating houses, approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

DESCRIPTION OF MR. JAY COOKE'S NEW PALATIAL MANSION.—A lady, who has been on a visit to Mr. Jay Cooke's new palatial mansion, near Philadelphia, thus writes:

"I can't describe what it is like. I don't think anything grander, more beautiful, more splendid, or more in keeping could be imagined. And the Cookes are just the kind of people to live in it. L. is a perfect brunette, and her sister S., who is younger, is a blonde. L.'s room is furnished in bright crimson satin, and S.'s in light blue satin. Just beyond their rooms is still another bedroom, which belongs to the girls, and is called the spare bedroom, and is intended for any friend whom they wish to invite to visit them. C. was occupying this room. Everything in the house, with the exception of Mr. Cooke's boudour and a few of the paintings, is American. Mr. Cooke would have nothing else. In the sitting room is a large old fashioned, open fire-place, with andirons, which Mr. Cooke's mother presented to him. There is every kind of room in the house that you could think of—billiard room; amusement room, where they have a regular stage, foot-lights, &c.; music room, where they have an elegant square grand Chickering piano. I can't tell you of all the rooms, for it would take me all night, and even then you wouldn't have a very clear idea of them."

OFFICERS' FEES.—In the Legislature, the bill to ascertain and regulate the fees to be received by the several officers of this Commonwealth was taken up and passed, after three hours' consideration. The bill increases the fees of the following officers about twenty per cent, viz:—Sheriffs, Prothonotaries of the Courts of Common Pleas, Clerks of the Courts of Quarter Sessions, Clerks of the Oyer and Terminer, Clerks of the Orphans' Court, Attorneys-at-law, Aldermen and Justices of the Peace, except in Philadelphia. The increase in fees of the Registers and Recorders is large.

MEASURING DISTANCE BY SOUND.—A bell rung under water returns a tone as distinct as though rung in the air.

Stop one ear with the finger, and press the other to the end of a long stick or piece of dead wood; and if a watch be held at the other end of the wood, ticking will be heard, whatever the length of the stick of wood.

Tie a poker on the middle of a strip of flannel two or three feet long, and press your thumbs or fingers into your ears while you swing the poker against an iron fender, and you will hear a sound like that of a heavy church bell.

These experiments prove that water, wood, and flannel are good conductors of sound, for the sound of the bell, the watch, and the fender pass through the water, and along the deal and flannel to the ear.

It must be observed that a body in the act of sounding is in a state of vibration, which it communicates to the surrounding air, the undulations of the sound affect the ear, and excite in us the sense of sound. Sounds of all kinds, it is ascertained, travels at the rate of fifteen miles in a minute; the softest whisper travels as fast as the most tremendous thunder. The knowledge of this fact has been applied to the measurement of distance.

Suppose a ship in distress fires a gun, the light of which is seen on shore, or by another vessel, twenty seconds before the report is heard, it is known to be at a distance of 7.600 yards, or little more than four and a quarter miles.

Again, if we see a vivid flash of lightning, and in two seconds hear a tremendous clap of thunder, we know that the thunder cloud is not more than 760 yards from the place where we are, and we should instantly retire from an exposed situation.—Scientific American.

A CURE FOR HYDROPHOBIA.—We find the following going the rounds of our exchanges, and give it for what it is worth:

The effects resulting from the bite of a rabid animal are so inconceivably heart-rending that the writer deems it but an act of justice to make the subjoined remedy public, for the benefit of the unfortunate hereafter. Within the past two weeks there have been two cases of hydrophobia, of the most distressing character—one in this city and one in New Jersy—and daily reports are made in the newspapers of mad dogs being seen in and about the city. Every individual in the community, therefore, should procure and preserve a copy of the following cure, to use in case of an emergency.

William Hoffner, Esq., of Passyunk, the gentleman from whom the writer obtained this invaluable receipt, states that he has known several instances of men and animals who have been bitten in the severest manner by mad dogs, but who having taken this remedy, never experienced any effect whatever of the disease:

"Take of the root of elecampane one ounce and a half, cut it fine, then boil it in one pint of new milk down to a half a pint; take this three mornings fasting, and eat no food until four o'clock in the afternoon. It should be taken every other morning; the last two doses must weigh two ounces each. This remedy will have the desired effect if taken at any time within twenty four hours after the accident."

The press generally, by giving the above receipt a conspicuous insertion, will advance the cause of humanity.

Mrs. Partington sometimes gets things mixed up, but in regard to marriage her ideas are tolerably clear, and she is, we are happy to see, "sensible to the last." "If ever I'm married," said Ike, looking up from the book he was reading, and kicking the stove door energetically—"If ever I'm married"—"Don't speak of marriage, Isaac, till you are old enough to understand the bond that binds congenial souls. People must'nt speak of marriage with impurity. It is the first thing children think of now-a-days, and young boys in pianofores, and young girls with heads fricaseed into spittoon curls, and full of love-sick stories, are talking of marriage before they get into their teens. Think of such ones getting married! Yet there's Mr. Spaid, when heaven took his wife away, went right to a young lady's cemetery and got another, no more fit to be the head of a family than I am to be the Board of Mayor and Alderman. She tapped the new box that her friend, the colonel, had given her, with her eyes resting upon the gold heart inlaid in the centre of the lid, as if hearts were trump in her mind at the time, while Ike, without finishing his sentence, kept on with his reading, accompanying himself with a pedal performance on the stove door, and a clatter upon the round of his chair with the handle of a fork in his hand.

GREAT EXPECTATION.—A husband (himself perfect, of course). thus sketches what he dreams he deserves:

"A woman whose intellect has field enough for her in communion with her husband, and whose heart asks no other honors save love and admiration; a woman who does not disdain to be beautiful; who believes in the virtue of glossy hair, and well fitting gowns, and who eschews rents and ravelled edges, slip shod shoes, and audacious make-ups; a woman who speaks low, and does not speak much; who is patient and gentle, intellectual and industrious; who loves more than she reasons, and yet does not love blindly; who never scolds and rarely argues, but adjusts with a smile; such a woman is the wife we have all dreamed of once in our lives, and is the mother we all worship in the backward distance."

J. W. DICKERSON,
Chairman Dem. Co. Com.

SENATOR STUTZMAN.

The Inquirer has taken up the cudgels and is belaboring with great ferocity the devoted gentleman whose name stands at the head of this article. It is not our province to defend Senator Stutzman against the malignant attacks of the Inquirer, but we will say for him that as a man, a citizen and a legislator, his record is bright and shining compared with that of a certain special pet of, and occasional scribbler for, that delectable sheet. Even upon the railroad question, he is less vulnerable than the man who, during the last five years, has distributed passes over the Pennsylvania Railroad, by the handfull. Senator Stutzman certainly stood faithfully by the interests of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad company, whilst his attention to the wants of his constituents, has been all that could be desired. His views and votes upon the question of a "free railroad law" are not what we hoped they would be, but they are shared by a large majority of his party in the Legislature. The Radicals, as a body, are responsible for the enactment of the bogus "free railroad law" of which the Inquirer complains. They are in a large majority in both houses of the Legislature, and, therefore, could, if they would, give us the proper legislation. Why, then, does the Inquirer single out Senator Stutzman, when it might discharge the contents of its blunderbuss, with much greater effect, into the whole flock? The fact is that there is not a whit of sincerity in the complaints of these querulous editors, and, mark our word, before the very next election, they will be loud and fulsome in their praises of the same legislators who have sold the people "like sheep in the shambles." Senator Stutzman is a Radical and that is the worst that can be said of him. We shall fight him politically, always, but so long as we retain our present respect for his personal character, we shall deem it the duty of friendship to say a good word for him when assailed by so disreputable a sheet as the Bedford Inquirer.

An article appeared in our paper, during our absence from home, which seems to have stirred up the slumbering wrath of our friend of the Franklin Repository. If Col. McClure has no sinister purpose in urging the calling of the proposed Reform Convention, there is no necessity for his extreme sensitiveness upon the question of his sincerity raised by Democratic journals. If he deal honestly with the Democrats, time will vindicate him against the suspicions entertained by his political opponents. At any rate he should not permit his vexation at such suspicions to run away with his discretion. He should remember that when he makes flings at other people for running for office, it might be retorted upon him that he himself has been running for office ever since he arrived at the age of manhood, and that though never chosen to any position which brought him, as salary, more than $700 per annum, he managed, while in office, to amass a large fortune. We say we might make this retort upon our friend of the Repository, but we prefer to preserve the entente cordiale, and, therefore, do not make it.

—The death penalty has been restored in Michigan.

PEPPERGRAMS.

The first instant proved the Radical party to be April fools, for on that day they expected to carry Connecticut.

The Connecticut election was held on last Monday. We know very little of the result.—Bedford Inquirer.

How utterly dumbfounded! A clap of thunder from a clear sky, could not have frightened the Inquirer chaps more completely out of their wits, than the result of the election in Connecticut. We hope, however, that they will recover their senses in time to give their readers a true account of that election, in their next issue.

The U. S. Senate have rejected the nominations of Gen. F. P. Blair as Minister to Austria, and Gen. H. W. Slocum as Naval Officer at New York. An angel of light, if of Democratic antecedents, could not pass through that limbo of lunatics with wings unsinged.

Our pride in the honest courage and faithfulness of the Governor, goes far to relieve us from the grief that accompanies the recollection that we voted for such a man for Senator as Stutzman. —Bedford Inquirer.

How about your grief as to the black mail you levied on Stutzman, in the shape of contributions to the Inquirer establishment? Of course you regret that you took that money from him.

Geary vetoed the bill to increase the powers of the Pennsylvania Railroad company. Another bill of a similar character, however, was not vetoed. The arguments used with the Governor to get his signature to the last named bill, are said to have been of a peculiar and cogent character.

The Bedford Inquirer copies an article from the Richmond Examiner, praising the submissiveness of the negroes and heads it "Complimentary." The editors of the Inquirer have harped so long upon the African, that they imagine a compliment to the Negro to be intended for themselves.

OUR friend Meyers of the Bedford Gazette, who was appointed Collector of this District by President Johnson, has been (just as we confidently anticipated) by the Senate. We regard this as a very high compliment to Mr. Meyers' political character.—We trust there may be no disgraceful compromise in regard to the appointments in this District. We should certainly have no higher opinion of Andrew Johnson, if such should prove to be the case, and we know that we would ask the scorn of every honest man to fall upon the Senate, should they be parties to such a disreputable barrier.—Fulton Democrat.

"The high contracting parties" have agreed that Mr. Wm. McShery (Dem.) of Adams, and Mr. C. W. Ashcom (Rep.?) of this county, shall be, respectively, Assessor and Collector of Internal Revenue for this district Mr. McSherry is a first-rate man and a good Democrat. Mr. Ashcom is not quite so good a Democrat, but, as he has frequently voted for Democratic candidates, declares himself "opposed to Negro Suffrage," and received his appointment through Democratic influence, we may reckon him almost within the Democratic fold. Hence, our friend of the Democrat will perceive that there was no "compromise"—not the slightest—in the appointment of these gentlemen. Andrew Johnson will still retain the good opinion of the Democrat and "the scorn of every honest man" will not fall upon the Senate"—at least until Mr. Ashcom shall have appointed his subordinates.

RHODE ISLAND.

Even in Rhode Island (now-a-days called "Sprague's Farm") the Democrats, without making any active canvass, have gained about 1,200 votes since last year. They have also gained one Senator and four Representatives. The sky brightens in the East.

Address of the Democratic State Central Committee of Connecticut.

The Democratic State Committee of Connecticut greet you with the result of the election in this State.

The Democratic and Conservative electors have achieved a signal triumph on these issues:

In favor of representation in Congress by every State.

Immediate union on the basis of the Constitution.

No usurpation of undelegated power by Congress.

No military despotism in this Republic.

No Congressional force bills to establish negro suffrage. On these issues they have swept the State by seven hundred majority on Governor and a net majority of eighteen hundred on Congressmen.

We gain three of the four Members of Congress.

On national issues was the battle fought and won. (Signed)

JAMES GALLAGHER,
Chairman of the State Committee.

CHECK TO EMIGRATION.—The new order of things in Germany, brought about by the late campaign and the resultant aggrandizement, of Russia, will place a serious check upon the stream of emigration that for years has poured in the direction of the United States. Bismark's new plan of military organization renders it almost impossible for young men to leave the Fatherland in search of fortune on a foreign shore. They all have to serve twelve years in the regular army, and will not be furnished with passports to travel anywhere without entering into heavy recognizances for their return. Formerly they could get passports for the free cities of Hamburg and Bremen, and thence embark for America, but the new dispensation has changed all that. —Pitts. Commercial.

THE DAWN!

BRIGHTLY BREAKS THE MORN!

CONNECTICUT REDEEMED!

ENGLISH, DEMOCRAT, ELECTED GOVERNOR BY UPWARDS OF 1,000 MAJORITY!

THREE OF THE FOUR CONGRESSMEN DEMOCRATS.

DEMOCRATIC GAIN ON LAST CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION, 11,500!

HURRAH FOR THE "LAND OF STEADY HABITS!"

GREAT DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES IN OHIO, WISCONSIN, AND MINNESOTA!

We announced, last week, in brief terms, that Connecticut had gone Democratic. We now give the details of the election held in that State on the first instant, by which our readers will perceive that the Democrats of the Nutmeg State have achieved a MOST BRILLIANT VICTORY. They have elected their whole State Ticket, from Governor down, by a majority of upwards of 1,000! They have carried three of the four Congressional districts, gaining on the result of the last Congressional election, 11,500 votes! This glorious triumph was won after one of the fiercest campaigns ever witnessed in the State. A very full vote was polled and every nerve strained by the Radicals to carry their ticket. But the monstrous doctrines of the latter, the erection of a Military Despotism in ten States of the Union, the forcing of Negro Suffrage upon an unwilling people, and the financial troubles brought upon the country by the party in power, were too heavy a load for the Radical candidates to carry, and they sank beneath it, never to rise again. So let it be, not only in Connecticut, but everywhere.

We give the figures of this grand result below, and also some returns from the Western States showing the same state of affairs in that section. Democrats of Pennsylvania, look at these cheering signs, and take heart and hope!

HARTFORD, April 3.—Late and full returns of the election on the first, show that Governor English and the remainder of the Democratic State Ticket, are elected by upwards of 1,000 majority.

LATER.

All the returns are in, and the vote for Governor stands as follows:

English, Dem.,	44,406
Hawley, Rad.,	43,381
Maj. for English	1,025.

Hubbard, Dem., is elected to Congress in the first district, over Deming Rad., by 500 majority.

Hotchkiss, Dem., is elected to Congress, in the second district, over Northrop, Rad., by 2.500 maj.

W. H. Barnum, Dem., is elected to Congress, in the fourth district, over P. T. Barnum, Rad., by 500 maj.

The Rads. carry only the third district, by 1,700. The last time they had over 4,000 in this district.

The following are the gains for the Democrats in the several Congressional districts, over the last election for Congressmen:

Districts.	D. Maj.	R. Maj.	D. Gains
First	500		2,700
Second	2,500		3,800
Third		1,700	2,000
Fourth	500		3,000
Total Dem. gain			11,500

Seven pay rolls of employees in the Custom House were recently abstracted by some one connected with that establishment, and, being altered to suit the present month, were presented one after another to the auditor and cashed.

—Kentucky and Wisconsin, as we have already announced, have passed laws for the payment of the salaries of their members of Legislature in gold. Arkansas has followed this example, though with a difference—the members are to be paid in greenbacks at the prevalent rate of premium on gold. Very little of the precious metal has lately been seen in that far-off region.

—A gentleman who has returned from the South where the flood recently prevailed, reports that cattle were gathered together in huddles upon high places to save them from drowning. —Numerous expedients are reported from Massachusetts to get round the prohibitory liquor law, which is now being enforced with rigor in that State. The latest expedient is the sale of mince pies with a large quantity of brandy in them, or, as a Boston paper expresses it, "about one drunk to each mince pie." These are known as "anti-prohibition pies," and are chiefly sold in the highly exemplary and moral town of Boston.

—The Civil Rights bill has raised an interesting question in Alabama. A justice of the peace has been arrested for violating this law, in ordering a negro to be whipped for stealing, instead of sending him to jail. The justice pleads that he made the order because the negro requested to be whipped instead of being imprisoned. Whether the justice should be punished for doing what the negro asked is puzzling the Alabama lawyers.

—A little girl, daughter of W. Bankshaw, died suddenly in Chicago, on Sunday night—said to have been whipped to death by her father. JOHN W. BOWEN ESQ., is a regularly authorized agent for this paper, and will visit our friends throughout the county, for the purpose of making collections and taking subscritions. We hope that his calls will be responded to in the proper spirit. We have some $6,000 on our books, $1,000 of which we need very badly to pay a debt we owe in bank. In fact we must collect, and if mild measures will not answer our purpose, we will be compelled to resort to harsher ones. There are many persons who pay promptly. To such, thanks! There are more who do not. To such, duns, and finally writs. We desire to oppress no man. We are willing to be liberal to those who are in straitened circumstances. But if me do not heed our request to settle, if they treat our call for payment with contempt, they have no further claim upon our generosity. We have given away enough in our business to keep a small family five years. If we are to continue that sort of work, we want those who can pay to come forward and do it, and those who can't, to step up and settle. Of course, we don't refer to those who do pay. If this be not attended to soon, we will see whether "some things can't be done as well as others."

FAIR FOR FRUIT.—Our exchanges unite in declaring that extensive examinations in Western Pennsylvania show that the fruit has not been injured by the hard freezing of the winter. The same report is made from New Jersey. There is now every reason to hope that fruit will be abundant this year, and, as a consequence, will be cheap.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. IMPORTANT QUALITIES.—BRANDRETH'S PILLS so stimulate all the interior powers of the system that every poison or impurity is forced from the blood into the bowels, and thus passes off. Recent cases of sickness will often be cured by the effect of 6 or 8 Brandreth's Pills, which, when the operation is full and complete, leave the blood as free from poisonous and unhealthy matter as that of a new-born babe. In colds, inflammatory diseases, and even in cholera, their use restores to health sooner than all other remedies, because they take from the blood and bowels those matters upon which pains, cramps, and aches depend for continuance.

Captain Isaac Smith, of Sing Sing, says, thirty of Brandreth's Pills, taken according to directions, cured him of a very severe bronchial affection after other means had failed and he wishes his numerous friends to know the fact.

Brandreth's Pills, Principal Office, Brandreth House, New York. Sold also by all Druggists.—See my name on Government stamp, without which the pills are spurious. B. BRANDRETH.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

COMMISSIONER.

MR. EDITOR:—Please announce Joseph Souser, of Napier township, as a candidate for Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

BOROUGH ORDINANCE IN REGARD TO PAVEMENTS &C.—We find posted around town, a notice of the Burgess and Council to the citizens of our goodly borough to clean and lime their cellars, pave in front of their houses, and do other things tending to a good sanitary condition of our people. This is an excellent measure and should be enforced. In fact it is so good that we have determined to make it generally known by giving it a place in our columns. Our borough fathers have selected a clerk who writes an excellent hand, but "ten written notices" will hardly inform the inhabitants of the town of the passage of this ordinance. We believe it was Caligula who directed his laws to be posted at so great a height that nobody could read them, in order that he might have the pleasure of inflicting punishment upon every body for disobeying them. Now, we do not think for a moment that the Burgess and Council had any intention to imitate that barbarous and bloody ruler, but they certainly have not improved much upon his plan in the publication of laws. In order to rescue them from the odium of such a comparison we publish below the ordinance referred to, without charging a cent. The next time "at least ten written notices" of an important regulation adopted by the Burgess and Council are deemed a sufficient publication by those worthies, we shall permit the public to liken them to Caligula or any other fellow that lived before the invention of the printing press.

NOTICE.

At a Regular meeting of the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Bedford, on the 3d day of April, 1867, the following Resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That each owner of Lot or Lots or the Tenant thereof, be required to clean up and clear the alleys in the rear of their Lots; that each occupant be also required to clean and lime their cellars within ten days from this notice; that every Lot owner, or the Tenant thereof, be required to pave with Brick or Gravel and Curb in front of their Lots, and that on failure to commence work thereon after fifteen days notice, the Burgess and Council will proceed to so Pave and Curb and enter a lien for the price thereof according to law. That at least ten written notices embodying these Resolutions be put up in the most public places in the Borough.

Certified, April 5, A. D., 1867.
H. NICODEMUS, Clerk.

DAMAGE BILL.—The Border Damage Bill passed on second reading in the House, at Harrisburg, on Thursday evening, by a vote of 56 to 31. It appropriates $500,000 to be paid in installments—ninety days, one and two years—and includes eight counties, viz: Adams, Franklin, Fulton, Bedford, Perry, York, Cumberland and Blair. The Governor is to appoint the Commissioners to take testimony, and claimants are required to take "a test oath" of loyalty. We earnestly hope that this bill may become a law. The appendage of the "test oath" doesn't amount to anything, as there is nobody in the counties mentioned in the bill who cannot take it with a clear conscience. It is, of course, intended as an insult to the people of those counties, but claimants under the law will not mind it, as they will, doubtless, consider the source.

NATIONAL BANK NOTES IMITATED.—As we are now in the midst of receiving, paying out and exchanging current funds, we deem it opportune to publish the following for the guidance of business men, for which we are indebted to the April number of Peterson's valuable and reliable Counterfeit Detector:

1s, altered to 10s—vig. of 1s, two female figures with hands clasped, one pointing upwards. 10s, have figure of Franklin drawing electricity from the clouds, and on back of bill is De Soto discovering the Mississippi. On back of 1s, is the Landing of the Pilgrims. Well done.

50s, altered from 5s; the 5s have vigs. on each end—and landing of Columbus back. Look out for this alteration.

SHAD CAUGHT!—One day last week, our friend Thomas Mullenix, of Snake Spring tp., while fishing with a dipnet, in the Juniata, a few miles below town, had the good fortune to capture a genuine, true and unmistakable shad, the first fish of the kind caught in this neighborhood since the erection of the dams on the Susquehanna and its tributaries. So much for the effect of the "Fish Convention." Now, let every dam-owner along the Juniata build a sluice for the accommodation of the finny travelers in their migrations to the head waters of the stream. If this be done. we soon shall have plenty of excellent fish in the Juniata. Let us rejoice that we see —"of former days the shad-oh!"

REMOVAL.—Isaac Lippel has removed his Clothing Store to the Old Colonnade, lately occupied by Mrs. Taylor as a shoe store, where he will be glad to accommodate his old customers and the public generally.

I. O. of O. F.—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows, throughout the United States and Canadas, intend observing Friday, the 26th of this month (it being Forty-Eighth Anniversary of the establishment of the Order in America) as a day of Thanksgiving for reasons set forth in the proclamation of its chief national officer, which we here publish:

Whereas, the R. W. Grand Lodge of the United States, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at its late September Session, 1866, in grateful 'recognition of the unerring hand of God in rescuing the genius of Odd Fellowship from the ruin which desolated so many of the benevolent and charitable Institutions of our common country, as the indispensable effects of civil war,—and of the unmistakable prosperity which has crowned its labors during the year which has just past,' did, by unanimous vote, direct the M. W. Grand Sire to issue his Proclamation appointing a Day of Thanksgiving for these and countless other blessings vouchsafed to our beloved order:

Now, therefore, I, James P. Sanders, M. W. Grand Sire, do hereby fraternally direct that the 26th day of April, 1867, be observed by the Members of our Order throughout the general jurisdiction, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, and that they do assemble on said day in such manner and form of organization, with their families, as the appropriate authorities in their respective State Jurisdictions may prescribe, to render thanks to the ever-living God, for his manifest favor and protection to that Institution which we so much love and cherish, and especially for the preservation of its unbroken unity, through trials and perils of unparalleled severity.

Done at the City of Baltimore, this first day of November, A. D., 1866, and of our Order the forty-eighth.

JAMES P. SANDERS, M. W. G. S.

In obedience to this proclamation, Bedford Lodge No. 202 and Cove Lodge No. 368, of Woodberry, also Peace Branch Encampment, No. 114, of this place, will unite in a public procession, in full regalia, and appropriate services in the Presbyterian Church, at 10½ o'clock of that day. The public are cordially invited to attend.

TRAINING HEIFERS.—A Pennsylvania farmer who has trained and milked heifers for more than fifty years, and never has any trouble about their jumping, kicking, or running, gives the Rural American the following secret:—"When I intend to raise a heifer calf for a milch cow, I always 'raise it by hand,' and when feeding, frequently handle it by rubbing it gently over the head and neck until it becomes tame and gentle. The rubbing is done at the first feeding with milk, and continued until I quit feeding it; I never afterward had any trouble about milking them.

TABLEAUX.—The Mite Society of the Presbyterian Church, in this place, gave a very pleasing entertainment, in the Court House, on Thursday and Friday nights of last week. The tableaux presented on the occasion reflected great credit upon all connected with them.

THE REGULATOR.—Irvine and Statler have just received and are offering for sale at the famous Regulator, boots, shoes, queensware, fancy articles, and a general variety of all kinds of useful and ornamental goods. Call and see them.

CLERK TO THE BURGESS AND TOWN COUNCIL.—H. Nicodemus, Esq., has been appointed Clerk to the Burgess and Council. Esq. Nicodemus is one of the best clerks in the county and will fill the place in a most creditable manner.

FESTIVAL.—The Lutheran S. School Library Association of this place will commence a festival in the Hall building, on Thursday evening next.

MISHLER'S BITTERS
WILL CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!

Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—

1st, Scrofula.—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, its channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it acts on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed inscribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

To cure this dreadful complaint it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that

It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.

2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.

3d, Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep er spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's bitters are a sure cure for this disease.

4th. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complexion, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

J. W. BRADLEY'S
CELEBRATED PATENT
DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING)
SKIRT.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the DUPLEX ELLIPTIC SKIRT will be experienced particularly in crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring Skirt.

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary Skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered: preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c.

The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the STANDARD SKIRT of the Fashionable World!

To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz. superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, inquire for J. W. BRADLEY'S DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.

CAUTION.—To guard against imposition, be particular to notice that Skirts offered as "DUPLEX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—☞ none others are genuine. Also notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.

For sale in all stores where first class Skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent,

THE OLD GUARD,
A MONTHLY MAGAZINE,
DEVOTED TO
Literature, Science and Art, and the Political Principles of 1776 and 1787.

C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.

The success of THE OLD GUARD has been as remarkable as it ought to be gratifying to the friends of a true American literature. It has steadily doubled its circulation each year of its publication, and its publishers have found it necessary to annually enlarge it, to meet the full expectations of its patrons, as well as to realize their own ideal of a first-class Family and Literary Magazine, combined with sound political principles.—To still farther carry out this design, The Old Guard for 1867 will be printed on new type, and enlarged sixteen additional pages, making in all nearly One Thousand Pages of reading matter yearly for the low price of three dollars! Arrangements have also been made to secure the very best literary talent of the country. We will commence in the January number a thrilling Romance, written expressly for The Old Guard, entitled,

JOSCELYN; A Tale of the Revolution;

By Wm. Gilmore Simms, Esq., of S. C.,

the peer of Cooper and Irving, taking the reader back to the birth of the American principle of government, and introducing him to the rebels of 1776. John Esten Cooke, Esq., of Virginia, author of "Surry of Eagle's Nest," &c., &c., will furnish a series of graphic sketches, entitled "The Battles of Virginia," while our present corps of contributors, with some new ones, will continue to furnish articles, making the Magazine second to none in point of literary attraction and ability.—Politically, The Old Guard will stand in the future as in the past, faithfully guarding the Constitution as it came from the hands of Washington, without acquiescing in any of the subversions, under the title of "amendments." It will be continued upon the grand idea that "all is not lost," while virtue and intelligence remain with any portion of the people.

The world renowned author, in this admirable Lecture clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. THIS LECTURE WILL PROVE A BOON TO THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS.

ASTROLOGY.
The World Astonished
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives your name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secresy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig;
Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair,
And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI

For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, provided entire satisfaction is not given. Miscellaneou.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.

The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with consciencious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.

In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.

EDITIONS.

The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.

1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.

2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political, agricultural, financial, literary, etc.

3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.

In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the WEEKLY WORLD.

The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.

The DAILY WORLD affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.
